Mentor-Mentee Programme

We are committed to realizing the highest potential of each student, supporting them to exceed both their own expectations and those set by their educators and caregivers. This policy outlines our strategies to achieve exceptional mentorship and guidance at Teerthanker Mahaveer University.

Student mentoring at Teerthanker Mahaveer University, Moradabad entails a dedicated, longterm one-to-one relationship between a student and a mentor. The mentor offers unwavering support, guidance and practical assistance, serving as a positive role model. Some students participating in our mentoring program may be navigating challenging life circumstances and require additional support, while others simply benefit from having another significant adult in their lives.

Our mentoring program aims to empower every student to acquire the skills and confidence needed to take charge of their own future and achieve their full academic and personal potential. University ensures that all learners receive the nurturing, guidance, and support essential for continual personal growth and academic advancement.

Responsibilities of the Mentor

- Maintain Mentor-Mentee Booklet
- Maintain batch-wise student roll call list
- Keep contact details of students & parents
- Record the monthly attendance of mentee
- Record of all results
- Record of Mentor-Mentee meeting
- Student counselling should be done whenever required
- Maintain a record of mentees who appeared to be disinterested in academic progress
- To have regular communication with the parents of the Mentees
- Telephonic call records of defaulter students should be maintained.
- Maintain data on students' achievements
- Maintain discipline among students.

Instruction to Mentors

- The students assigned to you for mentoring are to be dealt with patience and politeness and the effort should be made to ease the anxiety of the student especially when they are in the first year of their academics.
- When any student approaches you with problems in academics (subject/result etc) please try to support such students, on the bases of their emotional quotient. Try to arrange extra classes or remedial classes for such students by talking him/her to the HOD of the department and, if needed, to the Principal.
- Any personal problem/family problem of the students should be brought to the notice of HOD without fail.
- Never admonish or get into an argument with students while counselling them. If they misbehave should be brought to the notice of HOD.
- Always try to get the updated information about the candidate and then, make updations in the student's Mentoring Handbook (after due verification of the records presented) and, in no case any erroneous or misleading information should be mentioned in the Mentoring Handbook.

Instruction to Students

- The Mentor should always be updated with the latest information (up gradations in profile/achievements) with appropriate and genuine documentary evidence/s.
- The counselling is meant for dealing with problems related to academics and other activities, so avoid discussing personal/family problems with the Mentor, but you can contact the chief or the Principal if the need be there.
- Any change in i) the address of your residence/parental address or ii) phone or mobile numbers of yourself or parent should be brought to the notice of Mentor immediately.
- While the process of mentoring is meant to support you to achieve a better position in academics and related activities, the institution does not take the responsibility of solving all the problems of the students. This mechanism will always make the best possible effort to make you comfortable in the TMU environment.
- You should not indulge in any objectionable activity or getting into an argument with the Mentor.

Characteristics of a Good Student Mentor

- A good student mentor is someone who engages in a positive relationship with the student and give them attention.
- The mentor needs to have positive self-esteem, react well to stressful situations and tolerate frustrating situations.
- They need to listen well and communicate on a level that the student can understand and not be judgmental.
- The mentor needs to provide leadership and guidance and be a positive role model, nurturing a relationship that respects the student's dignity.
- The mentor must always show up on time for sessions, be committed and accept their responsibilities.
- They will not break the trust they have established.

Benefits of a Student Mentoring Programme

- Students benefit from the support and guidance of a compassionate adult or supportive peer, along with assistance in their academic studies.
- This support enhances students' self-esteem and motivation to achieve success.
- Students receive encouragement to remain in education, progress to further or higher education, and receive guidance in choosing a career path.
- Mentees are motivated to avoid negative habits and cultivate positive behaviours.
- Students also develop improved interpersonal relationships with the university/institute, teaching staff, and their own families.

Benefits to Mentor

- Adults who volunteer as student mentors deepen their engagement in the learning community and realize their potential to effect positive change.
- Mentors acquire new insights and understanding about young people and the institute community, thereby contributing to broader goals of community cohesion and regeneration.

Benefits to the University

- Implementing a student mentoring scheme cultivates positive community relations and contributes to local and regional economic growth objectives.
- Students' motivation and aspirations will increase, positively impacting morale within the learning community.
- Mentoring will optimize the achievements of both individual students and groups who may be at risk of underperforming, thereby eliminating barriers to success for vulnerable student populations.
- Mentoring programs enhance the skills of both staff and students, leading to improved student attendance and higher retention rates.
